FALSE

90% of people experiencing mental health problems have experienced mental health stigma.

In Time to Change's 'Stigma Shout' survey, almost 9 in 10 people reported that stigma and discrimination had a negative impact in education, work, and medical treatment or in their personal lives.