Learning through activity

Mental health discrimination:

Giving some people less favourable treatment because of their mental health, which might include being less able to access opportunities and resources.

Mental health stigma:

Negative beliefs and attitudes about a person or group of people based on their mental health, related to social, institutional, or self-perceived stereotypes.