

Learning 4 leadership at transition

Training Room

A training course for young people

Training Room

Learning for leadership at transition is the name of some training we used to do.

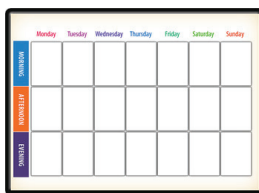

College

We ran the course in colleges in London.

We supported young people to learn to believe in themselves and to make changes in their lives.

The courses were 8 days long.

We are not running this training anymore but we are able to run these courses with funding from colleges.

For more information please get in touch with:
Jill Davies
jdavies@learningdisabilities.org.uk